

Geography of the Diocese

From the North Wessex Downs to the Jurassic Coast

The Diocese of Salisbury is a Christian community of churches, schools and chaplaincies serving one million people, stretching over 2000 square miles, from North Wiltshire to the Jurassic Coast and Channel Islands.

We're one of the most geographically diverse Anglican dioceses, covering a wide range of landscapes, from rural villages to the diversity of Poole and North Bournemouth.

For more than 1,300 years we have been a regional presence of the Church of England, with a history of serving our communities. Today, as always, we are committed to encouraging people to explore their faith in Jesus Christ and discover how God's love can transform lives
