Working Together with your School

Working Together with your School The SDBE are very pleased to warmly welcome you to our Partnership Service Agreement (PSA), this document details our comprehensive offer to schools for 2025-26. We know how valuable schools find the provision of the PSA and this active and positive partnership has been identified multiple times in SIAMS inspection reports; here are three quotes from 2024:

'Partnerships with the diocese provide professional support and development for staff, ensuring that worship is meaningful and impactful.'

'They enjoy a positive and fruitful partnership with the diocese, which offers valued support and encouragement.'

'Support from diocesan advisers to implement an exciting and relevant RE curriculum is having a positive impact.'

At the SDBE, we believe that our commitment to partnership working and our pledge to walk alongside you during in the everchanging educational landscape brings increased assurance and hope, enabling even greater flourishing in your church school.

As well as the PSA, the SDBE have a parallel programme for schools in a multi academy trust family, this is the Programme for Church School Flourishing (PCSF) details of this programme can be found here.

As we walk alongside you, we continue to represent, guide, support and advise you beyond the PSA.

We will:

- Promote mental health and wellbeing: Working to encourage good mental health enabling all to flourish and live well together
- Extend Spiritual Leadership: Enabling the development of spiritual leadership of school and academy leaders
- Advocate for Children and Young People in parishes and schools: Working in creative and innovative ways
- Represent you: Through strategic engagement with educational partners, such as the National Society for Education, SIAMS, Ofsted, DfE, RSC, LAs, etc.
- Offer advice about school estate: We have much experience in this area
